AOB

There was none specific to the AGM.

The business of the AGM was concluded.

Fair Play Awards of £50 Sports Direct vouchers were presented to the top two teams in each Saturday Adults division, U18s divisions and Womens League divisions and to the top team in the Veterans League. All winning clubs were present to collect their awards.

Presentations were given by Jess Boyle from DCFA regarding Accreditation and Colin Chainey from DCFA regarding Affiliation. Colin Chainey also advised Dorset affiliated clubs that discipline had been outsourced to an external company for one year only and would now be taken over by the FA. Colin advised that club secretaries should have received invitations to a webinar about Club Discipline.

Nicky Speed advised that a meeting for all Womens League teams was to be held at The Hamworthy Club, Canford Magna on Tuesday 19 August.

Malcolm Maidment advised clubs of the inaugural Women's Six-a-side tournament being held at the County Ground on Saturday 28th June and invited clubs to come along and offer their support.

Clubs were thanked for their attendance and wished good luck for the coming season and a safe journey home.
